SUBSTITUTE TERMINAL DISCLAIMER

In a phone conference between Examiner Lin and the undersigned on July 20, 2005, it was noted that a typographical error appears in the patent disclaimed in the Terminal Disclaimer filed June 13, 2005. Applicants do not intend to disclaim any term relevant to the patent referred to in the terminal disclaimer filed June 13, 2005.

In response the aforementioned phone conference, a substitute terminal disclaimer is submitted herewith. The substitute disclaimer disclaims the terminal part of the statutory term of any patent granted on the above-identified application which would extend beyond the expiration date of the full statutory term defined in 35 U.S.C. 154 to 156 and 173, as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer, of prior Patent 6814131. The present substitute terminal disclaimer properly addresses Patent 6814131 referred to in the first office action.

In connection with the terminal disclaimer fee submitted with the Terminal Disclaimer filed June 13, 2005, applicants respectfully request that that fee be applied to the present substitute disclaimer. If an additional fee is required, please contact the undersigned as soon as possible.

Respectfully Submitted,

SIR:

TERMINAL DISCLAIMER TO OBTAIN A DOUBLE PATENTING
REJECTION OVER A PRIOR PATENT

Buntrock Industries, Inc., owner of 100 percent interest in the above-identified application hereby disclaims, except as provided below, the terminal part of the statutory term of any patent granted on the above-identified application which would extend beyond the expiration date of the full statutory term defined in 35 U.S.C. 154 to 156 and 173, as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer, of prior United States Patent 6814131. The owner hereby agrees that any patent so granted on the present application shall be enforceable only for and during such period that it and the prior patent are commonly owned. This agreement runs with any patent granted on the instant application and is binding upon the grantee, its successors or assigns.

In making the above disclaimer, the owner does not disclaim the terminal part of any patent granted on the instant application that would extend to the expiration date of the full statutory term as defined in 35 U.S.C. 154 to 156 and 173 of the prior patent, as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer, in the event that it later expires for failure to pay a maintenance fee, is held unenforceable, is found invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, is statutorily disclaimed in whole or terminally disclaimed under 37 CFR 1.321, has all claims canceled by a reexamination certificate, is reissued, or is in any manner terminated prior to the expiration of its full statutory term as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer.

I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.

A check in the amount of $65, the required terminal disclaimer fee for a small entity under 37 CFR 1.20(d) was previously submitted with the Terminal Disclaimer filed June 13, 2005.

The undersigned is an attorney of record.

Respectfully Submitted,

John A. Parrish
